About
I am a dedicated graphic design student at the University of Tennessee with a strong foundation in creative problem-solving, leadership, and customer-focused communication. Through my experience as a yearbook designer I have developed strong organizational skills and an ability to create welcoming, user-centered experiences. I bring proficiency in Adobe Creative Suite, attention to detail, and a collaborative mindset to every project and role.

2025 - Present
Director of Service and Philanthropy
Organize and oversee all chapter fundraising and service initiatives, consistently managing communication, scheduling, and deadlines to ensure success for the TN Gamma chapter of Pi Beta Phi.

2025 - Present
French Cookie
I run solo shifts at the front desk where I am responsible for setting up the cookie displays, serving and engaging with customers, and being knowledgeable of the products we sell.

2023 - 2024
Yearbook
Designed key yearbook sections including the cover, index, and senior superlatives, while coordinating with a professional designer, managing timelines, and organizing photoshoots.

2022 - Present
Culvers
Carry out orders accurately and efficiently, answer questions regarding menu, prep and package food and custard, make guests feel welcome and train new employees in front of house position, and help managers run shifts smoothly.

2022 - 2024
Chewning School of Music
Greeted incoming parents and students, answered questions, collected monthly payments, and maintained cleanliness of the lobby. Made sure there was an open and inviting atmosphere for the staff and students.
